Meadowbrook Family - We are thrilled to announce that, beginning on Wednesday, September 8, we will be resuming in-person Wednesday evening gatherings. We will get together at 5:30pm in the Meadowbrook Family Center two Wednesdays per month for food, fellowship, and worship.

We understand that the rising cases of COVID are concerning to many of our members. Due to this, we are encouraging our older members not to attend for the time being until the COVID situation becomes less serious. In addition, if you are at all uncomfortable attending because of COVID, please do not allow feelings of guilt and fear of missing out lead you to attend. If you are uncomfortable, you are encouraged not to attend until you do feel comfortable. These gatherings will be COVID-friendly. Masks will be required until further notice. We will be able to spread out and maintain social distancing as much as possible in the Family Center, and we will implement serving methods to minimize contact with food.

We are excited for this renewed time of fellowship and worship together!

Small Groups At Meadowbrook, our small groups are how we live life together. Our groups meet once a week to share a meal, pray, and study scripture. Small groups will officially resume Sun., September 12. In addition to our traditional small groups, we'd like to create more opportunities to get together online to include reading a book together, watching a video series such as The Chosen, Season 2, or even listening to Christian music. For now, if you are interested in leading or participating in a new group from September to December, please contact amanda@meadowbrook.org. Feel free to join more than one group; more details will be coming soon!

Mississippi Food Network reopens Saturday, September 4, for volunteers to pack food boxes. MFN is located at 440 W Beatty Street, Jackson, 39201.

Also, don't forget to save the date for MFN's "6th Annual Midnight Market" fundraising event on Thursday, September 9, 6pm to 8pm, at the Mississippi Farmer's Market, 929 High Street. Head down to the market for an evening of delicious food, music, and shopping with local farmers. While you're having a fun-filled evening, you'll be helping feed the hungry in our community by supporting Mississippi Food Network.

Health Talents International Kemmel and Lisa Dunham, our missionaries from Guatemala, will be visiting Meadowbrook on Sunday, November 7. They will share parts of their journey with Meadowbrook during class and worship. Mark your calendars now!

Thank you to all who donated to "Christmas in July" this summer. Fifteen large boxes were picked up from Meadowbrook by the Stewpot truck. Some of you told us you couldn't make the physical donations this time, but you were sending money to Stewpot for "Christmas in July." Stewpot is grateful for all the donations. A huge thank-you to all of you who participated in this campaign to help our Jackson neighbors.

MYG continued...

For our “We Will Go Service Day” on Saturday, August 21, we will meet at the Urban Sip, 806 N Farish St, Jackson, at 9am. We will be doing some physical labor (weeding, painting, washing vans, trash pick-up, etc.), so wear comfortable clothes that you don't mind getting dirty. If you want to meet at Meadowbrook and ride with me, let me know and meet me at 8:45am at the Meadowbrook offices. We should be done around 12:00pm, and we'll grab lunch together afterward, so bring some cash for that. Please let me know if you plan on coming with your student, dropping them off, or if a student, bringing your vehicle so I can make sure we have enough seats to take everyone to lunch. I look forward to seeing you there!
