Congregational News

Meadowbrook will begin celebrating the Advent season November 27 through December 24. This year's theme is "Let There be Light!" Writers are needed to share stories of light during our Advent Season. Please contact Ben or Marsh if you are willing to write a brief story to share with the congregation. Marsh Wade - marsh@meadowbrook.org, or Ben Fike - ben@meadowbrook.org.

Veterans Night Celebration/USO Show TONIGHT

Our 17th Annual Veterans Night Celebration is TONIGHT beginning at 6:00pm in the Family Center-fellowship hall. As part of celebrating our veterans, we are offering entertainment with a USO show. Let There Be Light Christmas Project

This year for our church-wide Christmas project we are focusing on helping our neighbors in Baton Rouge who are still struggling to recover from the devastating floods that hit there in early August of this year. Meadowbrook is working with a local teacher who has identified 45 families who are in need of help. Because the Lord has blessed us so richly, we are inviting everyone to show Christ's light and join together to provide Christmas gifts for these families, similar to when we helped families in DeLisle after Hurricane Katrina. Individuals, small groups, or any group may select one or more families. Information sheets are being distributed this morning.

Please save these dates:

Today, Nov. 13: Select a family to help by picking up an information sheet.

Saturday, Dec. 10: Bring gifts to the Meadowbrook Auditorium between noon & 4pm.

Saturday, Dec. 17: Deliver gifts to Baton Rouge.
