CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

Mark Your Calendars!!!

September 27, 2020 is the date that our task force has agreed upon for Meadowbrook to begin meeting on campus! Protocols will be in place for social distancing, and reservations will not be required. However, we will ask people to let us know they plan to attend with a one-question online form. The link to the form will be in Tuesday's Meadowbrook email. Also, we will continue live-streaming for those not ready to come back.

Small Groups

Small groups will officially resume TODAY. We want to do our very best to stay connected with everyone while we continue transitioning in the world of Covid-19, and we feel the best way to do that is to become involved in a small group. In addition to our traditional small groups, we are creating more opportunities to get together online. Please go to the Meadowbrook website and Check our fall line-up of small groups here, if you are interested in leading or participating in one of the new groups, from September to December, please contact amanda@meadowbrook.org or the small group leader.

Food! Fun! Fellowship! Other words that start with "F"! We'll be spending the first 8 weeks of our 7th-9th grade small group watching Season 1 of "The Chosen", an amazingly excellent series on the ministry of Jesus and the lives around Him that He touched. Come ready to hang out, eat, and grow closer to Jesus!

In preparation, read Isaiah 43:1-3 and Luke 8:1-3.

Please remember to bring masks and practice social distancing as much as possible until COVID restrictions are lifted. Thanks!

We'll eat together, have some fun, and dive into the hard-hitting world of Christian apologetics (the art of defending the Christian faith). This first session, we'll be talking about the reason for Christian apologetics and the biblical meaning of the word "faith". Please remember to bring masks and practice social distancing as much as possible until COVID restrictions are lifted.
