Every Picture Tells a Story

A big THANK YOU to the 200+ families who had their pictures taken for our pictorial directory! Having your picture included in the directory not only helps to identify you to others, but it also helps to carry on the story of Meadowbrook. If you were unable to have your picture made during the scheduled dates, please send a GOOD quality digital photo of your family to michael@meadowbrook.org, and we will work it in the directory. If you do not have a digital picture to submit, make an appointment with Michael in the church office and he will take your picture. We really do want everyone to be included in the directory! Also, if you had your picture taken in August and you did not receive your free 8X10 in your home mailbox, please check for it on the foyer table this morning.

Ladies' Day Luncheon

Sunday, October 21, 12:00 to 2:00. Child care will be provided. Please R.S.V.P. by completing an attendance form and dropping it in the basket provided in the Auditorium foyer. The last day to register is Sunday, October 14.

NEW Children's Bulletin - Be sure to pick up a children's bulletin for ages 7-12 on the table in the foyer. Today, the children's bulletin teaches about praising God. What inspires you to praise God: singing, scripture, nature? Talk to your kids about praising the Lord. Go to the Children's Ministry page on www.meadowbrook.org to find the children's bulletin answer key! There are a few copies of last week's children's bulletin on giving as well.
